

End of Life Arrangements

Medical Situation

	NOT IMPORTANT	MODERATELY IMPORTANT	VERY IMPORTANT
Being at home when I die.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Being in a hospital when I die.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Being alert.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Being around my family and close friends.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Being able to feel someone next to me or touching me.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Being able to tell my life story and leave good memories for others.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Having religious or spiritual advisors at my side when I die.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Reconciling differences and saying "good-bye" to my family and friends.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Staying alive long enough for my family to get to my bedside before I die, even if I'm unconscious.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

More Information:

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Burial and Funeral Arrangements

People often leave instructions for what they want their loved ones to do with their bodies after they die. Some want to be buried in a particular place, maybe in a cemetery with other family. Other people would prefer to be cremated. They might want to have their ashes put in a special place.

I would prefer to be:

BURIED

CREMATED

NO PREFERENCE

People also have different ideas about their funerals and memorial services. These services are often very comforting for family and friends because they celebrate and honor the life of a loved one. Services also can make a statement about your religious faith.

I would like my remains to be put:

---

---

---

---

---

Other preferences:

---

---

---

---

---

Write down any thoughts you have about your funeral or memorial service, such as:

- Where it should be held
- Where donations should be sent
- Other wishes
- Songs or readings to include
- Information for your obituary notice

---

---

---

---

---